

“This is a significant day in Adams County as the nation's leading operator of private prisons starts construction of new facility that will help fill a need for more prison beds while enhancing the economy of Southwest Mississippi. I welcome these new jobs and this additional investment by Corrections Corporation of America in Mississippi. The state, local officials and company representatives have worked together on this important project and I look forward to a continuing strong relationship.”